Deacon Philip writes ...

Looking into the Heart of the Crib

It's almost a relief to get to be within touching distance of Christmas Day. Most of the preparations are over and we are gazing into the familiar scene of the Nativity of Our Lord.

Advent has been guiding us to the moment when we can look afresh on the Incarnation of our Redeemer as a human person. More than that of course, Jesus is fully human and fully God, a mystery over which we need to take time to ponder.

The mystery of Christ's coming is not like one of those Poirot or Miss Marple thrillers we see repeated every Christmas on TV, where we eventually remember who did it! This mystery is one that calls us to re-assess our response to God every time we contemplate it. That is what the message of Advent – urging us to wait joyfully – and Christmas itself is all about. Jesus came to earth once and for all, He called us to recognise that He is the embodiment of love and peace in our lives.

Spend just a few moments looking anew at the figure of the child of Jesus holding open His arms to embrace us. Plan a new type of resolution for the New Year that will be about making that kind of love and acceptance a reality in your life.

O Come, O come Emmanuel... 'God with us'

27 December – Feast of St John the Evangelist

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were nicknamed by Jesus ‘the sons of thunder.’ John is involved in many of the central events of Jesus’ life, including the Transfiguration, the Crucifixion, and the discovery of the Resurrection. He is ‘the disciple whom Jesus loved’ and the one to whom he confided the care of his mother Mary.

He is mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles; later he was exiled to the island of Patmos. He is said to have died at Ephesus.

He wrote a Gospel, three Epistles, and the Apocalypse.

Circle of Prayer for December – Refugees and Migrants

Heavenly Father, no one is stranger to You, and no one is ever far from Your loving care. By Your grace, help us to welcome Your children who come to our land to escape oppression, poverty, persecution, violence and war; to banish fear from our hearts that we may embrace each one of them as our own brothers and sisters, with love and generosity, while responding to their many needs. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who too was a refugee and migrant, who travelled to another land searching for a home.
