25 January – Feast of the Conversion of St Paul

This feast concludes the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity– an eight-day event that has been celebrated by the international Christian community since 1908. St Paul's conversion caused him to become a great advocate for Christian unity, for which he worked so tirelessly, and the Church now remembers and celebrates that wonderful event every year.

Paul had spent the early years of his life studying in Jerusalem and persecuting Christians for going against the Temple. He was even a part of the stoning to death of St Stephen, the Church's first martyr. Sometime around 35 or 36 AD, however, he met Christ on his way to Damascus, who asked why he was persecuting Christ, and told him to go into the city where he would be told what to do. At that point, Paul was blinded for three days, and was taken into Damascus where the Lord told Ananias, a disciple, to go to Paul and heal him. At that point, 'something like scales fell from Paul's eyes', he was healed and he became baptised, and started preaching about Jesus in the synagogues.

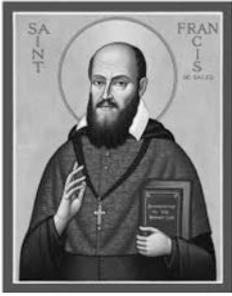

His sudden switch confused the Jews, who subsequently grew angry with him and tried to kill him, several times. Paul nevertheless continued preaching to them as well as to the Gentiles. His conversion, dangerous though it may have been for St Paul, had a hugely positive effect on the life of the Church. He became one of the Church's great evangelisers, helping to bring many people into the Church. While most saints have feast days based on their date of death, St Paul is one of the only saints who have a feast day commemorating conversion. This conversion shows that anyone can be forgiven and brought to a life with Christ, even those who previously were on the completely opposite side of Christianity. It is an event that the Church wants to remember and celebrate because of its great importance for Christians everywhere.

24 January – Feast of St Francis de Sales (1567-1622)

He was born near Annécy, in Savoy, studied the law, and was ordained to the priesthood despite the opposition of his father. His first mission was to re-evangelise the people of his home district (the Chablais), who had gone over to Calvinism. Always in danger of his life from hostile Calvinists, he preached with such effectiveness that after four years most of the people had returned to the Church. He was then appointed bishop of Geneva, and spent the rest of his life reforming and reorganising the diocese, and in caring for the souls of his people by preaching and spiritual guidance.

St Francis taught that we can all attain a devout and spiritual life, whatever our position in society; holiness is not reserved for monks and hermits alone. He wrote that 'religious devotion does not destroy, it perfects', and his spiritual counsel is dedicated to making people more holy by making them more themselves. In his preaching against Calvinism, he was driven by love rather than a desire to win, so much so that it was a Calvinist minister who said 'if we honoured anyone as a saint, I know of no one since the days of the Apostles more worthy of it than this man.'

St Francis is the patron saint of writers and journalists, who would do well to imitate his love and his moderation. As he said, 'whoever wants to preach effectively must preach with love.'

Fr. Jay, Fr. Francis and Fr. Prince who have all offered Mass in our parish over the last few years belong to the Congregation of the Missionaries of St Francis de Sales (MSFS/Fransalians). It was founded by Fr. Peter Mary Mermier (born 28 August 1790 in Savoy) for the spiritual renewal of the people who were in deep spiritual crisis and religious indifference caused by the French Revolution.

BAPTISM PREPARATION COURSE FOR NEW PARENTS

The next baptism preparation classes will be held on Saturdays 28 January and 4 February, starting at 10.00 am for one hour in the St Francis Suite.

The parish encourages all new parents asking for baptism of their child, to attend. We also welcome parents who may wish to renew their preparation for baptism as their families grow larger. Asking for baptism for your child is the start of your child's sacramental journey in the Church. The sessions look at your role in the development of your child's faith, what you ask of the Church and the promises you make on behalf of your child. We look forward to seeing you and your family. Godparents and grandparents are welcome to join us.

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is traditionally observed from 18 to 25 January – the octave of St Peter and St Paul.

There are many reasons to celebrate this year's Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. As the resources take our focus to Germany we remember especially the 500th Anniversary of the German Reformation and the call to reconciliation.

This is a time of great change and uncertainty around the world as we confront difficulties such as climate change, migration of people across the planet and conflict spreading in many places. In Europe we see many of these issues finding expressions on our streets and these are indeed a cause for prayers for unity.

We need to pray for a greater vision of a united Church. With so many global and local issues confronting all of us every day, the churches' witness needs to be strong and clear in its call for unity. We need to be resolute in standing together to witness to a Christ-centred church, in standing with those on the margins who have no voice and no power. Prayers for unity need to become daily prayers, so that we deepen Christ's life in each one of us.

I hope you have a rich and meaningful experience of prayer during this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

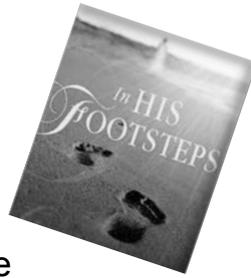

Bob Fyffe, General Secretary, Churches Together in Britain and Ireland.
