Feast of St Thomas More (1477-1535) – 22 June

The son of a judge, he was born in London and became an eminent lawyer. He married twice and had four children. He was a humanist and a reformer, his book, Utopia, depicting a society regulated by the natural virtues is still read today.

Thomas More was a close friend of Henry VIII. As a judge, he was famous for his incorruptibility and impartiality, and he was made lord chancellor – the highest legal position in England, in 1529.

When Henry demanded a divorce from Catherine of Aragon, Thomas More opposed him. He resigned the chancellorship in 1532 and retired from public life, but he could not retire from his reputation, and so it was demanded that he take an oath to support the Act of Succession, which effectively repudiated papal religious authority. He refused and was imprisoned in the Tower of London. After the execution of John Fisher he was tried on the charge of high treason for denying the King's supreme headship of the Church, found guilty and sentenced to death. He went to his execution on 6 July 1535 with a clear conscience and a light heart; he told the spectators that he was still 'the king's good servant – but God's first', and carefully adjusted his beard before he was beheaded.

Feast of St John Fisher (1469-1535) – 22 June

He was born in Beverley in Yorkshire, in 1469. He studied theology at the University of Cambridge, and had a successful career there, finally becoming chancellor of the university and bishop of Rochester. Unusually for the time, he paid a great deal of attention to the welfare of his diocese.

He wrote much against the errors and corruption into which the Church had fallen, and was a friend and supporter of great humanists such as Erasmus of Rotterdam, but he was greatly opposed to Lutheranism both in its doctrine and in its ideas of reform.

He supported the validity of King Henry VIII's marriage to Catherine of Aragon and for this he was briefly imprisoned. When the King had divorced Catherine, married Anne Boleyn and constituted himself the supreme head of the Church in England, John Fisher refused to assent. He was imprisoned in the Tower of London on a charge of treason, and on 22 June 1535, a month after having been made a cardinal by the Pope, he was executed. He was so ill and weak that he had to be carried in a chair to the place of execution.

He was the only bishop to oppose Henry VIII's actions, on the grounds that they were a repudiation of papal authority, but even so he avoided direct confrontation with the other bishops, not holding himself up as a hero or boasting of his coming martyrdom: 'I condemn no other man's conscience: their conscience may save them, and mine must save me.'

THE THEME FOR THE YEAR OF PRAYER AND VOCATION IN JUNE IS MOTHERS' PRAYERS

A Mothers' Prayers group has been meeting in our parish for sixteen years to pray for our children, families and friends. The Lord has blessed us richly by answering many of our prayers. We have seen some of our children come back to church, pass exams, find work, find accommodation and make good friendships and relationships. There have also been both spiritual and physical healings and occasions too of family reconciliation.

We meet fortnightly on a Monday at 7.30 pm with fellowship and refreshments followed by prayers for our children and families.

All prayers are confidential and anyone is welcome who would like to pray for their children and family. Please feel very welcome to come and meet us over a cup of tea and cake at our next meeting on 18 June, or at any other meeting. You can ring Sue Barley on 01525 634186 for more information or just come to 80 George St, in Maulden.

Our Holy Father said 'Family is the greatest treasure of any country'.

Let us pray continually for our children and young people.
