Feast of St Vincent de Paul – 27 September

Born in France in 1581 into a farming family in Pouy, Vincent's initial desire to be a priest was mainly for social advancement and monetary gain. Through a process of careful planning and being in the right place at the right time, Vincent was ordained a priest at the ripe old age of nineteen by an elderly bishop who could barely see or hear.

Beginning his ordained life with less than pure motives, Vincent's change of heart began in the middle of one of his visits to the poor tenants of a wealthy estate-holder.

When Vincent was called to hear the confession of a dying man, the spiritual naivety of the penitent shocked Vincent. The poor man knew next to nothing about his religion. Not long after, Vincent preached a sermon on general confession from the pulpit in the village chapel of Folleville. In it, he asked the people to take to heart the necessity of repentance. The response overwhelmed him.

For hours the villagers stood in line to go to confession. Inside they poured out their longing for the Gospel and for good priests to minister to them. Vincent had not guessed at their hunger or their need. Based on this conversion of heart, Vincent gathered a little band of missionary priests to his side.

In 1626, Vincent and three priests pledged to, in his own words, 'Aggregate and associate to ourselves and to the aforesaid work to live together as a Congregation and to devote ourselves to the salvation of the poor country folk'. The Congregation of the Mission was born. More men became priests to join Vincent and his three original companions, and began preaching across France. Within Vincent's lifetime the Congregation of the Mission had spread throughout the world.

At Vincent's funeral, the preacher declared that Vincent had just about 'transformed the face of the Church'. No one disputed this claim. His basic vision was simply that the Good News of Jesus Christ should be announced to the poor through word and service.

Pray the Rosary

OCTOBER – THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

The month of October is the Month of the Rosary, and along with each of the parish groups we are saying rosary most weeks. More Information next week.

The word rosary is derived from the Latin word rosarium meaning crown of roses. Our Lady has revealed to several people that each time they say a Hail Mary they are giving her a beautiful rose, and that each complete rosary makes her a crown of roses. The rose is the queen of flowers, the rosary is the rose of all devotions and therefore the most important one. The Holy Rosary is considered a perfect prayer because within it lies the awesome story of our salvation. It is a simple prayer, humble like Mary. It is a prayer we can all say together with her, the Mother of God. With the Hail Mary we invite her to pray for us. Our Lady always grants our request. She joins her prayer to ours. Therefore it becomes ever more useful, because what Mary asks she always receives; Jesus can never say no to whatever his mother asks for. In every apparition, the heavenly Mother has invited us to say the rosary as a powerful weapon against evil, to bring us to true peace.

Pope St John Paul II on 16 October 2002 with the Apostolic Letter, Rosarium Virginis Mariae, on the Most Holy Rosary, added five new mysteries of the rosary: the Mysteries of the Light.

ADOREMUS

Thoughts from Helen Burgess

A week ago I attended the Adoremus Eucharistic Congress in Liverpool. I went with our parish and also as part of my role as a school lay chaplain. Liverpool is my hometown. A highlight for me had to be returning to my spiritual roots!

The congress was diverse, a range of themes were explored with lots of choices and parallel sessions. Something for everyone. The cathedral was spectacular, as was the input from Bishop Robert Barron from Los Angeles who spoke on the second day about the Mass. He received a standing ovation!

However, my take away message came from two optional sessions on Ecumenism. In each a group of senior leaders from a range of Christian denominations spoke from their perspective about the Communion table. They explored our differences but they also shared a deep desire to listen to each other, respect and support each other. In the second session held at the parish church of Our Lady and St Nicholas, the Anglican Bishop of Liverpool reflected on how he intended to join us all at Mass on Sunday morning and walk with us in the Eucharistic procession on Sunday afternoon. It was clear that this relationship of trust was not simply for Adoremus but the product of decades of work and commitment to ecumenism.

I represent our parish at the Churches Together group for Flitwick and Ampthill, and was able to share these encouraging observations with them this week.
